OSD Declassification/Release Instructions on File

Dear Pete:

Here are copies of the letters I referred to, which are self-explanatory.

I suggested that you burn or destroy these letters only because I thought you naturally did not want to get yourself into any personal involvement.

However, if you want to show them to anyone that has the proper authority to delve into such matters, you can rest assured we are not afraid of anything we have said, and we are not afraid of having anybody see these, including the No. 1 man himself.

We can support everything we have said and for your info most of the people I saw or had reputation on the CIA Task Force may have been great guys and successful businessmen, politicians, army officers, army or navy officers but do not know much about intelligence and NOTHING about counter intelligence & investigation procedure which I began at the Police Academy and 32 years ago ^{and continued in Army - NA - etc} ^ cordially
